

The State of the University

PREPARED FOR: THE CHANCELLOR'S CENTURY COUNCIL

March 2, 2023

M. Katherine Banks, Ph.D., P.E.

President

Texas A&M University

Facts and Figures

74,829

TOTAL ENROLLMENT
FALL 2022

18,542

DEGREES AWARDED
2021 – 2022 (through August)

516,000

AGGIES WORLDWIDE

$1.15B

RESEARCH EXPENDITURES

1ST

in the U.S. for
Most Graduates
Serving as CEO of
FORTUNE 500
COMPANIES

2022 Highlights

25th Anniversary of The Bush School

Opening of Aggie Park

Federal Designation as Hispanic Serving Institution

New Commandant
Brigadier General Patrick R. Michaelis

New Southside Rec Center

Golden Age of Texas A&M

Alignment in our leadership
Availability of resources
Strong organizational foundation

Relevance, Opportunity and Influence

We are committed to making higher education more relevant,
we will continue to create opportunity,
and we will influence our society in new ways.

Areas of Strength

Transformational Education

Translational Research Enterprise

Connectivity to the State, Nation & World

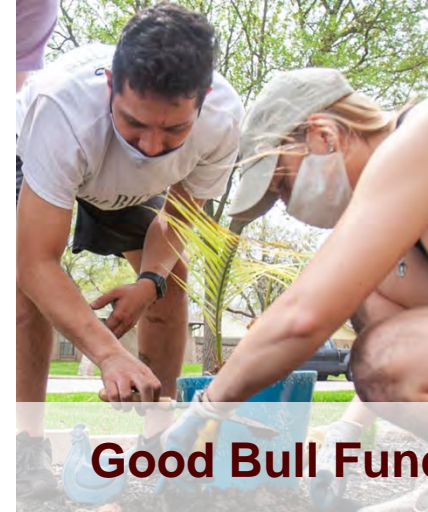

Celebrating the Aggie Way

Supporting our Students

Elevating Student Health and Well-Being

Good Bull Fund for Student-Led Activities

$100 Million Scholarship Campaign

Grow the Corps of Cadets — March to 3,000

New Academic Units

College of Arts & Sciences

School of Performance,
Visualization & Fine Arts

The Ever-Changing Landscape

The Gates of Aggieland are Never Closed

The 1923 Longhorn
The yearbook for the Agricultural & Mechanical College of Texas

The Academic Building

Preservation & Rehabilitation Project

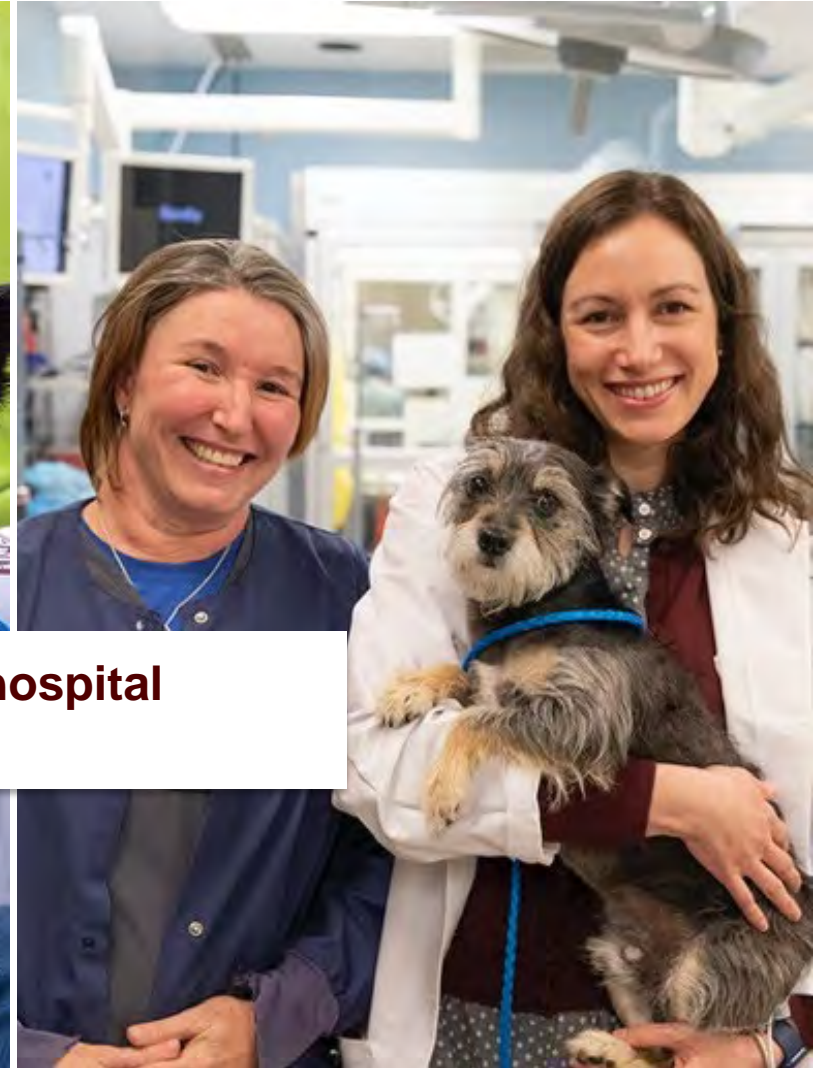

Mays Business School Expansion

Business Education Complex: 82,500 sq ft expansion
Construction Began Fall 2022, Opening Early 2025

New Small Animal Hospital

We aspire to have the best small animal hospital in the world, and we will

Early Childhood Learning Laboratory

Charlotte Sharp Children's Center and Becky Gates Children's Center will combine to create a premier learning lab

Proposed Center for Learning and Arts Innovation

Future Home of the School of Performance Visualization and Fine Arts
Unique learning laboratory and performance facility

Planned Aplin Center

Hands-on, interactive setting provides a welcoming experience for the public to interact with the Texas A&M academic culture

Proposed Museum & Library Complex

Discussions are underway about a future museum and library complex on West Campus

The Leach Teaching Gardens Expansion

Phase II of The Gardens includes plans for a children's garden and amphitheater

George H.W. Bush Presidential Library and Museum Expansion

41@100
A CELEBRATION OF
GEORGE H.W. BUSH

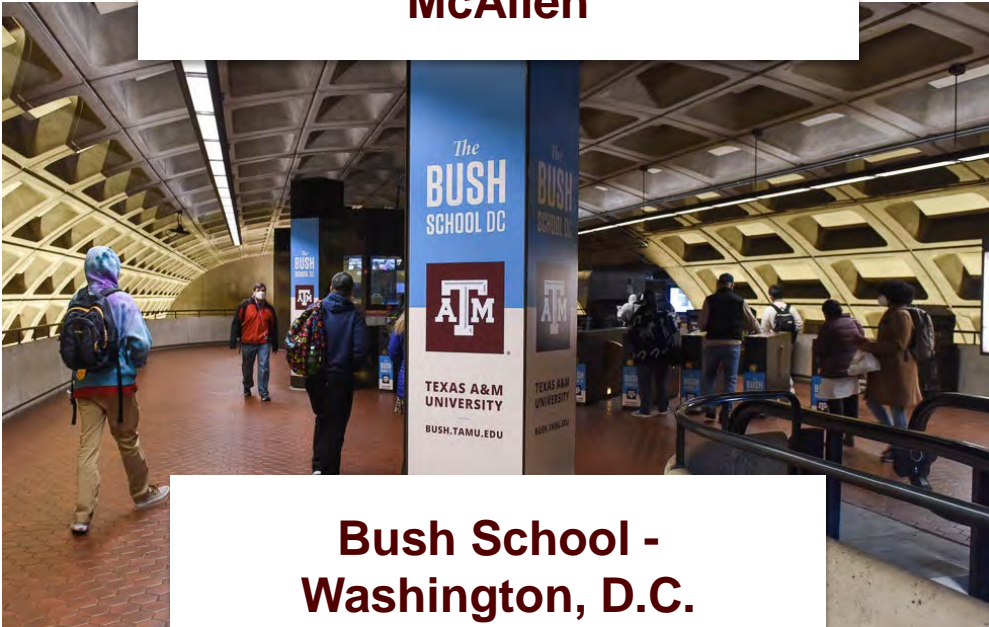

Marine One/4141 Locomotive Pavilion
Opening June 2024

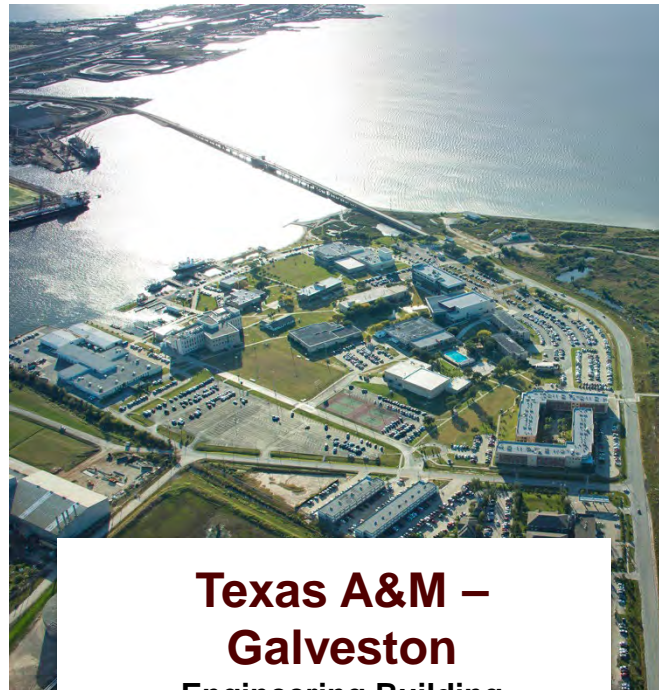

Expanding our Footprint beyond Aggieland

Texas A&M - McAllen

Bush School -
Washington, D.C.

Texas A&M - Galveston
Engineering Building

Texas A&M -
Fort Worth

A close-up photograph of several people wearing maroon Texas A&M Aggie jerseys. They are hugging each other, with their arms wrapped around each other's shoulders. The focus is on the hands and arms, conveying a sense of unity and support. The background is blurred, showing more people in similar attire.

“We must center any goal or plan for the university’s future within our Aggie core values and Texas A&M’s rich traditions.”

M. KATHERINE BANKS